

Growing Concerns

Cultivating Safety

This course is designed to provide participants with the knowledge needed to help keep themselves and fellow firefighters safe while operating at a suspected marijuana grow operation. Program includes identification of electrical service panels, possible modifications to building electrical service panels, hazards associated with electrical overloads, health hazards from grows, structural modifications, suppressions concerns, HVAC modifications, Situational Awareness while conducting a 360 to prepare crews for interior suppression operations.

Date: Wednesday, March 5th, 2025 - @ 7:30pm {Dinner at 6:30pm}

Location: Watervliet Fire Department, 217 West Pleasant Street

Contact Course Manager: Doug deBest with any questions debestfire@hotmail.com

Course Number: 2025-2-11-Q47L-0020

Course Instructor: Adam Munro

Course length: 2 hours

Course Cost: FREE

